

I ardently oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law via the Consumer Bankers Association petition to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana's consumers. The Indiana Telephone Privacy law is one of the most successful consumer protection laws in this state. Please uphold our current level of freedom from business harrassment by telephone.